GRANDFAMILIES & KINSHIP SUPPORT NETWORK

A National Technical Assistance Center

- 5-year (2021-2026), $10-million cooperative agreement with the Administration for Community Living
- Generations United has worked on behalf of and with kinship/grandfamilies since 1997
- Purpose is to provide technical assistance to the array of government agencies (aging, child welfare, disability, education, housing, Medicare and Medicaid, nutrition, TANF) and organizations that serve kinship families, including kinship navigator programs
- Not designed to help the families directly – working to improve systems for families

How We Help

Learning Collaboratives and Information Dissemination

The Network hosts webinars and facilitates learning collaboratives.

Individual Assistance

We respond to individual requests for help from government agencies, kinship navigators, and community-based nonprofits.

Targeted, Specialized Support

For jurisdictions that want and are ready for a larger investment of effort, the Network will help optimize their collaborative approaches and improve their services. Solutions will be replicable for others.

A Centralized Hub

The Network is elevating exemplary kinship/grandfamily practices and programs from around the country on its accessible website to launch mid-September 2022 - www.GKSNetwork.org (link not active yet).

What Is Collaboration?

- A strategy that enhances an agency or department's strengths and expands its ability to accomplish its mission
- A decision to work jointly for a common cause
- Cooperation resulting in each agency, program or department benefiting and giving better service
- Collaboration supports and honors tribal sovereignty and culture through more holistic services

NICWA

Protecting Our Children • Preserving Our Culture

Key Points

- Collaborating programs develop a shared vision for positive outcomes
- Collaborative programs develop processes for joint work and work to sustain them
- Collaborating programs budget with collaboration in mind
- Collaborating partners are accountable to each other and set up routine check-ins
- Collaborating partners adapt to needs of the community, families, and children

Why Collaborate?

- Children get better care when the adults in their lives cooperate!
- It works in families, and
- It works in systems

More Reasons to Collaborate

- Families get better services when services are coordinated
- Resources are scarce and duplication or poorly coordinated services are wasteful

NICWA

Protecting Our Children • Preserving Our Culture

More Reasons to Collaborate

- Challenges that grandfamilies face are too complex to solve without a comprehensive, coordinated, holistic approach providing an array of services that address loss, grief, healing, housing, income, etc.,
- Every family kinship/grandfamily is important and deserves support

NICWA

National Indian Child Welfare Association

Child Welfare Services

- Grandfamilies receive very few poverty reduction services
- Grandfamilies receive few housing-related services
- Grandfamilies receive few mental health services
- Grandfamilies receive few substance abuse treatment services

and Child Welfare

Key Shared Outcomes

RECOVERY

Parents access treatment more quickly, stay in treatment longer, and decrease substance use

REMAIN AT HOME

More children remain at home throughout program participation

REUNIFICATION

Children stay fewer days in foster care and reunify within 12 months at a higher rate

REPEAT MALTREATMENT

Fewer children experience subsequent maltreatment

RE-ENTRY

Fewer children re-enter foster care after reunification

Fundamentals for Improved Practice

- Consistently screen for trauma, substance use disorders, prenatal substance exposure, and DV, and know how to engage
- Routinely record observations/questions
- Supervisors and staff consistently monitor case records shared concerns
- Routinely share with court staff
- Maintain relationships with providers

Principles

The problems of child maltreatment, trauma, poverty, and substance use disorders demand urgent attention and the highest possible standards of practice from everyone working in systems charged with promoting child safety and family well-being.

Principles

- Success is possible and feasible. Staff in child welfare, TANF, substance abuse, mental health, court systems, and maternal and early care providers have the desire and potential to change individual lives and create responsible public policies.
- Family members are active partners and participants in addressing these urgent problems.

Premises

1. The team is people, and people, not tools, make decisions
2. The family is the focus of concern
3. Problems don't come in discrete packages; they are jumbled together
4. Assessment is not a one-person responsibility. When tribal children are involved, assessment may be the responsibility of more than one jurisdiction.
